

FOR SALE
697-5059

Reinventing the Outport: The Ambivalent Role of Gentrification in Rural Newfoundland

Emily Urquhart

Department of Folklore, Memorial University

Wilson Brown's home and timber frame pile.

WILSON BROWN'S
CHIMNEY IS ALWAYS
POURING OUT SMOKE FROM THE WOOD
STOVE. HE LIVES JUST DOWN THE HILL.

- MAY 2010 -

For Sale sign in Trinity, Trinity Bay

Closed shutters on summer home in Keels, Bonavista Bay

Bonavista

Port Rexton, Trinity Bay

Trinity, Trinity Bay

Newman's Cove, Bonavista Bay

Amherst Cove, Bonavista Bay

Newmans' Cove, Bonavista Bay

Elliston, Trinity Bay

Port Rexton, Trinity Bay

Trinity, Trinity Bay

Summer home owner's stove display

Archival Image of King's Cove, Bonavista Bay, 194-. Courtesy of the Maritime History Archive, Memorial University

Abandoned home in Red Cliff, Bonavista Bay

Land wanted message, Newmans' Cove, Bonavista Bay

People Ask if the yellow house is for sale all the time, but apparently there's a family member planning to return & fix it up. I know this because I am one of the people who asked about this place...

From the front, the yellow house is perfect & in great shape. Nice CLAPBOARD, decent roof, well built + sturdy out-buildings... From the side you see that the bottom half is sinking into the ground. It's got a serious lean. TOO BAD!!

Restored home for sale
near King's Cove,
Bonavista Bay

Restored home for sale in Red Cliff, Bonavista Bay

Framed photograph of original owner

Stripped down interior of traditional home in Red Cliff

Bonavista

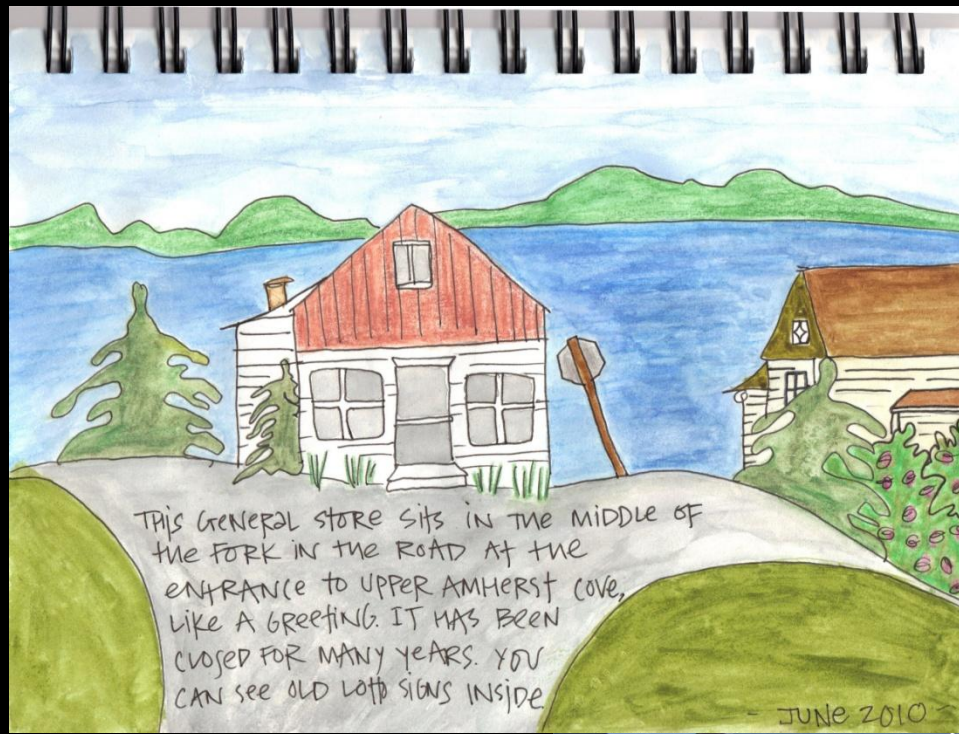

Port Rexton, Trinity Bay

Trinity, Trinity Bay

Five Cove's Garden Party, Newman's Cove, July 2010

Field book sketch of former general store and entrance to Upper Amherst Cove, June 2010

Post hurricane Igor image of entrance to Upper Amherst Cove, September 2010
Image: Jason Holley

Cabin built by Denzil Paterson, August 2010 , Image: Denzil Paterson

Interior of cabin with timber frame beams

Upper Amherst Cove, August 2010