Endangered Places of Faith Learning Tour

ADAPTING AND SUSTAINING

The learning bus tour explored a range of strategies for giving historic church buildings new life: from making existing congregations economically viable to the adaptive reuse of churches for community, private, or commercial purposes. On the ground insights were combined with group discussion, presentations and updates from across Canada. Tour leaders: Catherine Hennessey (Heritage Activist, Writer, Researcher) and Edward MacDonald (Professor, History, UPEI). Resource People: Randall Goodfellow (Chair, Creation Matters, Anglican Church of Canada, Ottawa, ON) and Dan Paulikot, Risk Control Specialist, Ecclesiastical Insurance (Toronto, ON).
